

THE OUSELEY CHURCH MUSIC TRUST

The Ouseley Church Music Trust (the "Trust") is an unincorporated charitable trust registered in England & Wales and numbered 527519. Its trustees administer the funds arising from the trusts of the former St Michael's College, Tenbury Wells founded by the Reverend Sir Frederick Ouseley, Bt. Established in 1986, the Trust is governed by a Scheme made by the Charity Commissioners and its object is "to promote and maintain to a high standard the choral services of the Church of England, the Church in Wales or the Church of Ireland (whether simple or elaborate) ... including ... promoting the religious, musical and secular education of pupils attending any school in which instruction in the doctrines of the said churches is given and performance of their choral liturgy is observed".

APPLICATION FORM FOR A MARTIN PICKERING AWARD

Notes

Before making an application for a Martin Pickering Award, please read our Martin Pickering Award leaflet. You will need to discuss this application with someone such as your Church/Cathedral Director of Music or Vicar/Canon Precentor. They will need to nominate you for an award, and we will contact them to comment on your musical ability.

If you would like to have an informal conversation in advance of making an application, please contact our Clerk, Neil Parsons on 07912 696852 clerk@ouseleytrust.org.uk who will be pleased to help you.

When completing the form, please write in CAPITAL LETTERS or type your replies. Please use black ink as the form may be copied.

Please answer all sections as fully as possible, as gaps may delay the processing of your application. Do not leave any lines or boxes blank: if necessary, insert "Nil" or "N/A".

Completed applications should be posted to: The Clerk, The Ouseley Church Music Trust, PO Box 1505, Wroxham, Norwich, NR12 8TJ or emailed to: clerk@ousleytrust.org.uk
